Our Roads

Friday Commissioner Coleman and three members of State Highway Commission came up in car from Rionmond to inspect the proposed addition to the State system of roads from Appomattox, Toga, Buckingham C. H., and Dillwyn. A large crowd of good roads enthusiasts met Mr. Coleman and his associates here and a good roads meeting was held in the Courthouse on a very short notice. Chairman Ligon of the Board of Supervisors, presided over the meeting and Messrs. Ferguson, Flood, Leslie Ligon, Horsely, Chas. Taylor and Brown Ryland and others made speeches. Before adjournment the opportunity was offered the meeting to vote on the route from Farmville to Appomattox and the vote was unanimous for the route via Pamplin and Evergreen to Appomattox, and Mr. Coleman said he would give us his decision in this matter before the 20th instant.

A large delegation from Buckingham was also present and escorted the Commissioner over the proposed Buckingham route, which was also unanimously endorsed by the meeting. At Buckingham dinner was spread where a large crowd was attending the County Fair Speeches were made again by Mr. Coleman and Mr. Ferguson and by Mr. W. J. Hubbard, clerk of the county. This addition to the State Highway system will add much to the value of the State system, develop a splendid section of county, which is sadly deficient in transportation facilities. About ten miles of the way from Dillwyn to Tower Hill road has been graded, and several miles of grade work has already been completed in Appomattox on the route; approximately the state would have 25 miles to build. Appomattox and Buckingham counties will stand solidly behind this project and if real hard, preaistent work is done, we expect to see this important route made a part of the State system of roads.

Appomattox Pig Club

One of the most important educational features of our progressive counties is the pig club work promoted by the county agent. Most every agent gives a large proportion of his time to club work, and the extension division of the State and Federal Government urge that this work be thoroughly done. Among the club work the pig club certainly holds a very enviable position. This is probably due to a number of things, among which are the low cost of starting and the ease with which a child may be interested in livestock. Other livestock might as well be used, but for the low cost of starting.

In order to be a member of a pig club the boy or girl must be less than eighteen years of age and must agree to follow the direction of the county agent, must keep a pure bred pig, must keep a record of feed and must exhibit the pig at the county fair.

In this county there are approximately fifteen boys and girls doing pig club work and their pigs will be shown at the county fair.

The easiest way to reach a man is through his child. Many times it is hard to convince him of a wrong farming practice, but if you can use his child to give him a concrete demonstration you are likely to get results. One boy in this county had almost decided to give up school work, but he became interested in pig club work, has raised a pig and is now preparing to finish high school and later go to college. The biggest job any organization can accomplish is to make better citizens. If the pig club is in any way helping to do this it certainly deserves the whole hearted support of the entire community.

The pig club is democratic because the boys of moderate circumstances are on equal footing with the rich man's son. When the pigs are exhibited at the county fair impartial judges are picked and every boy or girl is assured a square deal. It is truly an organization that is bringing the farmer to a realization of the value of pure-bred livestock.

Buckingham

The combined school and county fair held here last Thursday and Friday was easily the biggest thing of the kind ever witnessed in this county. The school people are much elated at the outcome. In the athletic contests pupils of the Buckingham High School won five medals, in the literary contests the students of the same school won three medals. The exhibits of work done in the grades was the best ever shown here and teachers and pupils alike deserve the biggest commendation. In the literary efforts put forth by the students first mention probably belongs to Miss Ethel May Childress who won in the debate on League of Nations, while the work of Master Charleton, Miss Ayers and Miss Jones all deserve special mention. The display of hand-work by the ladies was excellent and tatting, crocheting, knit work, hand made counterpanes and quilts were there as never seen here before; but I have only space to make special mention of a beautiful quilt exhibited by that veteran housewife, Mrs. Sue Spencer; the quilt was sixty years old and besides winning blue ribbon it was valuable as a relic of another age when people had time to devote to this kind of work. The display of tobacco, corn, wheat, oats, grapes and vegetables were all good, while the show of apples, pears and canned fruit was such as to please the eye and tempt the appetite. The show of cattle, horses, hogs, and fowls was fairly good, but not what they should have been.

State Highway Commissioner Coleman, Senator Ferguson, Rev Mr. Barrell, County Clerk W. J. Hubard and Mr. A. C. Garrett made speeches on the road question. All the speakers except Mr. Coleman advocated the adoption of a route leading from Dillwyn via Buckingham C. H. and on to Appomattox.

There is a call for a meeting of the tobacco growers of this county to be held here November 15th. Mr. Frank Rosen sold some tobacco on the Dillwyn market at $4, $6, and $10 the past week.

No less than five wagons with beef in them for sale were at Dillwyn last Saturday and the supply being greater than the demand the price was forced down as low as 15 cents a pound.

I have a list of the prize winners at the Fair and I will offer them for print in this paper to come out in installments.

This county gave Flood 819 votes, Grasty 269, Glass 809, Pollard 801. The ladies who had registered at this precinct turned out and voted; there were four or five colored women voted here.

At the sale of the Shaw property here Dr. Morris became the purchaser at a price of $2675. The four parcels were offered separately and only about $1400 was bid for them

Hixburg

Miss Edith Harwood is home after spending a month with friends and relatives in Washington, D C

Mr. T. M Roberts, of the Hixburg Roller Mills, had the misfortune to have his left hand severely hurt in the cleaning machine and is being assisted this week by Mr. Dickey, of Buckingham.

The following company visited the home of Mr. F. W. Swan of Wingina, last Sunday: W. A. Swan, Miss Ruth Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young, Mr. John M Cue, J H Wilkerson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown, Wiley Wilkerson and Miss Carrie Brown. We had the pleasure of motoring over about sixty miles of improved road in Buckingham county and crossed Appomattox river and several smaller streams on iron bridges and at one place the road force is at work erecting concrete abutments for a new bridge across the creek at Curdsville about thirty yards above the present roud, and when they have the new bridge completed I feel sure Buckingham will donate, if necessary, the present one for use near Hixburg to cross the Appomattox. While at Buckingham C. H. I looked about as best I could and among the noticable improvements is the high school building which is nearing completion. I also inquired for the reporter for the Times-Virginian as I wanted to make his acquaintance and thank him for his good letters which go so far to make our paper interesting.

Our entire neighborhood extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harwood, of Appomattox, in the death of their little child.

I hear right much complaint of hunters invading posted lands. It looks as if our mounted police, of which so much talk was some time since, could find plenty to do unless he too should join the sporting club. Marse Glenn, of Prince Edward, is having the hunters and law breakers to walk more circumspectly.

Sunset caught thirteen of us at Willis Mountain, we called by and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, after which we spent an enjoyable evening. Mr. Carter invited us out to see his pile of nubbins and pigs. "I say call them pigs and nubbins"; just sold one that weighed over 580, and two hundred barrels of corn already housed and only half done husking.

Mr. W. R. Gray, of West Virginia, and Mr. James E Gray, of Richmond, are on a visit to the old home place.

Mrs. J W. Davis who has been in Richmond for the past month has returned home

Mr. David Goin shot and killed a hawk that measured fifty-two inches from tip to tip.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset. I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it. . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

Why Many Don't Save-

Saving money, you will find, is not wholly a Dollars-and-Cents matter. This statement may sound strange, but it is true.

Saving money is, first of all, a Brain-and-Backbone matter. And this is just the reason why so many people who make money can't save any of it—they don't think, and have little self control.

Happily, however, there are very few who cannot learn the necessary lessons, if they will.

The time to start is today, and the place—this Bank. We'll help by adding 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually.

Mrs. Lula F. Hunter

Mrs. Lula F. Hunter, widow of Mr. Charles W. Hunter, died at the old homestead near Appomattox C. H., at one o'clock a. m Nov. 4th. She would have been 57 years of age had she lived until the 13th inst.

She lost her husband when her 4 children were small, but by splendid business management of her affairs was enabled to educate her three boys and one daughter, viz: Lieutenant C. Evant Hunter, Lieutenant C. Kendall Hunter, Duval Hunter, and Mrs. Carrie Hunter Willis, now of Fredericksburer Va. All of the four children are of sterling worth, and most highly esteemed and respected; they are fine specimens of the old Virginia type.

Mrs. Hunter was a daughter of the late Hon. J. C. Jones and Mrs. Anna W. Jones of this county, very fine people Mr. Jones volunteered for service when the war broke out between the States, and fought most gallantly until he was wounded three times, losing his left arm in that memorial Pickett's charge at the battle of Gettysburg.

When the war clouds lifted he went to work, and soon became one of our most successful and useful citizens. He filled the office of school trustee, a member of the board of supervisors several terms and served two terms as a member of the Virginia Legislature He was at all times ready and willing to serve his people as a true and trusted friend. He could not have been surpassed He was also an enthusiast o Mason.

His charming wife was also of the old school, devoted wife, mother and friend, very hospitable and full of life.

Mrs. Hunter leaves to mourn her loss the four children named above, two grandchildren: Marion Gordon Willis, the third, and Caroline Hunter Willis. One brother, Dr. H. E Jones, of Roanoke, Va, two sisters, Misses Nina E and M. Anna Jones, both of Appomattox county, Va., and a large circle of warm friends.

Mrs. Hunter organized and was the first president of the first Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Appomattox county, was also an enthusiastic member and worker in the W. C. T. U, and was also a consistent member of Liberty Baptist church from her early youth.

Her death was not unexpected, as she had been in declining health for some months, but she approached the end with a well grounded hope of the hereafter and bore her suffering with christian fortitude and resignation.

Her popularity was plainly shown by the many loving friends who gathered around her bedside in the last sad hour and the large concourse of friends who attended her funeral and covered her grave with many floral tributes.

Rev. Hugh C. Smith, of Bedford, her former pastor, preached her funeral at Liberty Baptist church Friday, and his sermon was touching and very suitable, fitting the occasion

The flowerbearers consisted of the chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The active pallbearers: Hon. R. L. Burke, Sam'l L Ferguson Jr., Harvey Caldwell, J. E. Sears, J. H. Stanley and R E Smith.

Honorary pallbearers: C W Hancock, E. E Gills, W. B Caldwell, J. R. Caldwell, R. E. Caldwell, Sr, W. J. Trent, Dan Evans, H. G Robertson, J. H. Robertson, W. F. Wood, M. C. Caldwell, E. R. Abbitt, J. A. Sears, and Robert Irby.

I have had the pleasure of knowing the deceased for nearly 30 years and can vouch for her sterling character as a wife, mother and true friend, and now, she is gone, let us try so to live that when the Master calls we can meet her in that happy home where parting is no more.
